

Privacy Policy

Lewsey Pentecostal Church is committed to the privacy of everyone we hold data on. This Privacy Policy contains an explanation of what happens to personal data that you choose to provide to us, or that we collect from you whilst you visit this site.

Please also note that we do keep this policy under review, and it may change from time to time.

How do we use the information we collect?

This privacy notice tells you what to expect when we collect personal information. It applies to information we collect about visitors to our website.

When someone visits our website, we collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. We collect this information in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website. We will not associate any data gathered from this site with any personally identifying information from any source. If we do want to collect personally identifiable information through our website, we will be up front about this and will make it clear that we are doing this and what we will be doing with the information.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

Google Analytics: These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our site. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, where visitors have come to the site from and the pages they visited.

You can change your cookie settings through your browser settings. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.aboutcookies.org

To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites visit <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

Third Party Links

You might find links to third party websites from our website. These websites should have their own privacy policies which you should check. We do not accept any responsibility or liability for their policies whatsoever.

Form Completion

When you complete a form with information, we will use that information solely in connection with the reason the data was collected. For example, if you book in for an event, we will use your data to contact you about that event, and to inform you of any changes to the event as well as to check you into the event. We will also only keep the information for as long as we need it for the event, or in connection with any specific requirements of a United Kingdom body, for example, public health.
